STUDENTS SUPPORTING STREET KIDS SSSK

TRUSTEES' REPORT

The trustees have pleasure in presenting their annual report and financial statements for the year ended 15th October 2006. The Trustees, all of whom served throughout the year were as follows:

Mr Charles Bretherton
Miss Kate Bretherton
Mr Gordon Couch
Mr Jonathan Glennie
Mr Charles Malston
Miss Catherine Pomeroy
Miss Hermione Ruck-Keene
Mr Tom Stephens

Review of activities

During the past few years, the charity has grown slowly but steadily. It operates through university and school branches. These encourage students to get involved:

- in understanding the situation of street children in different countries; and,
- in taking action which will help the children to have opportunities for education and healthcare by raising funds which are in turn used by local NGOs who work effectively to provide appropriate facilities and support.

The trustees have adopted the policy of trying to provide consistent and sustainable support to a number of NGOs in different countries of which SSSK members have personal knowledge because they have been there and seen the work done.

The trust maintains a website with the primary aim of providing background information for students. It is continually updated with recent resources and articles about work done by various NGOs with street children, and studies undertaken by organisations such as UNICEF. The site also provides information about the activities of the NGOs we support, and contact details for the trustees.

At the year-end, there were SSSK branches in:

Bristol University
Cambridge University
Durham University
Edinburgh University, and Oxford University

and at

St Paul's Boys School in London, and
St Paul's Girls School in London.

Financial review

As this is the first formal Trustees Report to be submitted to the Charity Commission with certified Financial Statements, it is worth reviewing the recent history of the Trust. The gross income and expenditure of the Trust during the (financial) year ending in October 15th in each case was as follows:

Financial year end	Gross income	Total expenditure
2000	£2,524	£1500
2001	£2,171	£1500
2002	£2,160	£2,138
2003	£5,098	£6,151
2004	£7,317	£800
2005	£2,763	£9,237

In 2006, the Gross income of the Trust was £19,848 and expenditure was £12,700. The huge apparent jump in income was the result of some monies collected by branches during the academic year 2005-06 being paid into the Trust account in October, just after the end of the formal financial year. In future years the charity will use the more formal accruals approach. It is perhaps more accurate to average the total Gross income of the combined financial years of 2004/5 and 2005/6 which suggests a Gross income of approximately £11,300 per year over the two years. This would also explain the apparent drop in income for the year-end 2004.

These figures illustrate the growth in income and expenditure. Within these figures, all the direct expenses incurred in running the Trust are paid for in full by contributions from the Trustees themselves, so that all the net monies raised by branches, and other monies donated, go in full to the NGOs we support. Individual branches are responsible for covering the costs of their local fundraising efforts, and for keeping appropriate records.

In the Financial Statements, the monies coming from the branches are described as 'Restricted Funds' all of which go to the NGOs, while the money contributed by the Trustees is described as 'Unrestricted Funds' which can be used as necessary to cover the direct expenses involved in running the Trust and its website.

Future plans

The Trust aims to ensure, as far as possible, the sustainability of the various branches in both schools and universities, and to look for opportunities for starting new ones. It aims to grow organically, and at a pace which it can sensibly cope with.

The Trust is anxious to ensure consistent support to the main NGOs which it supports, although one-off grants are considered where appropriate. It seeks to maintain as far as possible the personal links with the NGOs supported, and either Trustees or student SSSK members are encouraged to visit whenever possible (albeit at their own expense).

Trustees' responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for producing the Annual Report and Accounts in accordance with applicable Law and United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice. Charity law requires the trustees to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the results of the charity for the year. In preparing these accounts, the trustees are required to select suitable accounting policies and to apply them consistently; make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF STUDENTS SUPPORTING STREET KIDS

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 15 October 2006, which are set out on pages 6 to 8.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the 1993 Act)) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts (under section 43(3)(a) of the 1993 Act);
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 43(7)(b) of the 1993 Act); and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

(1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the 1993 Act; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 1993 Act;

have not been met; or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
